CONTINUATION:

PRINCIPAL'S STATEMENT:

Martin VERA-Cano was read his rights. He stated he was willing to provide a statement without the presence of an attorney.

VERA told agents he was caught by Border Patrol with a group of 7 undocumented aliens, which he was being paid to smuggle to an unknown location. He was to be paid $300 dollars by a man known to him as El Tamara. VERA told agents he has been apprehended smuggling aliens previously.

NOTE: Agents processes VERA on a 1 on 6 Administrative Smuggling case on 1/13/15. He was not prosecuted on that occasion.

There were no unaccompanied minors in this case.

MATERIAL WITNESSES' STATEMENTS:

Both material witnesses were read their rights. Both stated they were willing to provide statements without the presence of an attorney.

1- Favio Vazquez-Rodriguez told agents smugglers charged his uncle $2,300 (USD) to be smuggled to Houston, Texas. According to Vazquez, there was one foot guide originally, but he abandoned the group in the United States when they encountered Border Patrol. The group then became lost in the brush, until another foot guide found them and told them he was the new foot guide. The new foot guide told them he had been looking for them all night. He then led the way and told everyone to follow him and to stay quiet. Vazquez identified VERA in a photo lineup as the foot guide that found them and led them out of the brush.

2- Cecilio Gomez-Baten told agents he was charged $5,000 (USD) to be smuggled into the United States. Gomez stated there was a foot guide that smuggled them across the river and through the brush for a short distance, until they encountered Border Patrol, when he abandoned the group. After attempting to find their own way, the group became lost in the brush. The next morning, a different person found them in the brush and told them he was going to be the foot guide. He told the group to be quiet and follow him. Gomez identified VERA in a photo lineup as the second foot guide.
